

Diploma in HIV/ AIDS Management and Prevention

The diploma programme deals directly with the management and prevention of HIV and AIDS. A diploma in HIV and AIDS management and prevention will be awarded to those who successfully complete the course. The course is examined by the College of Veneral Disease Prevention, London, UK. It is accredited by (ASIC) Accreditation Service for International Colleges, United Kingdom

Course Content

- Poverty and Healthcare
- The Nature and facts of HIV/AIDS
- Different Types of HIV
- How HIV is Transmitted
- Global Epidemic of HIV/AIDS
- The Origin of AIDS
- Prevention of HIV
- HIV and Tuberculosis
- Financial and Social Cost of HIV/AIDS
- Managing and Living with HIV Infection
- HIV Testing and Immunology Silence
- HIV/AIDS Counseling Techniques
- Human Sexuality
- Immunity
- Condom Programming
- Home based care
- Home management of common symptoms
- Pain
- Positive living with HIV/AIDS
- How to Educate People about HIV Prevention
- HIV/AIDS and the Workplace
- HIV Vaccines and Microbicides
- HIV and Criminal Law
- Right to Self Determination and Consent to Treatment
- Assisted Suicide and Mercy Killing
- Terminal Illness and Bereavement, listening and grief.
- Access to and Disclosure of Medical Records
- Discrimination and Equal Opportunities
- Universal Declaration of Commitment on HIV/AIDS
- Abuja Declaration on HIV/AIDS, Tuberculosis and other Infectious Diseases

- Elimination of Discrimination Against Women
- HIV/AIDS and Human Rights
- Strategic Planning in HIV/AIDS Prevention
- International AIDS Organisations

Entry Requirements : None- But applicants should be able to cope with advanced studies

External Exams (Optional) : 300 British Pounds Sterling